

OUR CAMPUS, OUR HOME

TALKING TRUTH: Finding Your Voice Around the Climate Crisis

Fall 2017 Series
FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

HEARTS IN ACTION

Creative Responses to Climate Change

Mondays, 9/11 - 11/27, 4-5 p.m.
Science and Engineering Library
Lederle GRC Lowrise

Art-making, readings, reflective writing, discussion, contemplative exercises and more.

A collaboration between Talking Truth and Paperbark Magazine (a new UMass Amherst environmental-humanities publication).

GREEN BUILDING TOURS

with Ludmilla Pavlova, Senior Campus Planner
Thursday, 9/14 and Thursday, 10/5, 4-5:30 p.m.
Meet in the lobby of the Du Bois Library

Get the inside stories of the new Design Building, renovated Old Chapel, South College addition, Integrative Learning Center and others.

AUTHOR TALK: ELLEN MEEROPOL Reads from her novel: Kinship of Clover Thursday, 9/28, 7-9 p.m. Science and Engineering Library Lederle GRC Lowrise

Local author Ellen Meeropol G'89 will read from her newest novel, Kinship of Clover.

With deep activist roots she draws on her twin passions of medicine and social justice.
Meeropol is the author of two other novels, On Hurricane Island (2015) and House Arrest (2011).
On Hurricane Island was named a Massachusetts
Must-Read Book for 2016 by the Massachusetts Center for the Book. Meeropol graduated from the Nursing program at UMass Amherst.

GUIDED NATURE EXPERIENCE

with Lauren Healey '19 and Thomas Jiang '18, UMass Outing Club

Friday, 9/29, 12-1 p.m.

Meet outside the Durfee Conservatory,
in the grove of majestic beech trees.

Basic plant identification to help build our appreciation for natural spaces is followed by a guided meditation to explore how environmental action can fit best in your life.

CO-SPONSORS:

Department of Environmental Conservation, Office of Civic Engagement and Service-Learning, Paperbark Magazine, Psychology of Peace and Violence Program, and UMass Amherst Libraries

ENDORSED BY:

Biostead Initiative, Center for Counseling and Psychological Health, Contemplative
Pedagogy Working Group, Eco-Rep Program, Office of Religious and Spiritual Life, Spiritual Ecology and Regenerative Systems Initiative, and UMass Climateers

UMASS
AMHERST

LIBRARIES
www.library.umass.edu

facebook.com/TalkingTruthUMass/blogs.umass.edu/talkingtruth/